

Program Map for Alcohol and Other Drugs Certificate

Program Student Learning Outcomes.

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the human services field and its operational function in relation to client services.
2. Examine and perform various human services roles within the profession, incorporating counseling skills, ethical principles, and sensitivity to diversity.
3. Demonstrate ability to use research tools to locate and evaluate information that can be applied to the human services field.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of theoretical principles in the behavioral sciences to help address the needs of human services clients.
5. Identify the essential components of alcohol and drug addiction, and employ the tolls and skills needed to work with clients in treatment centers.

Required Courses and Restricted Electives	Program Outcome #1 Human Services field and it's operational function regarding client services	Program Outcome #2 Human services roles incorporating counseling skills, ethical principles, and sensitivity to diversity	Program Outcome #3 Research tools to locate and evaluate information and apply to human services field	Program Outcome #4 Theoretical principles in the behavioral sciences	Program Outcome #5 Essential components of drug & alcohol addiction; employ tools/skills needed to work with clients in treatment
COUN 74		X	X	X
COUN 87	X	X			X
COUN 90	X	X	X
COUN 91	X	X			X
COUN 92	X	X			X
COUN 93	X	X	X		X
COUN 94	X	X			X